WGR & WCGA present

The 6th Annual "On the FOREfront" Golf Tournament & Clinic

Monday, October 5, 2009

Please join Women in Government Relations, and the Women's Congressional Golf Association on Monday, October 5, 2009 for a day of golf and networking with other government relations professionals. Join us for the 18-hole Tournament or for the Mini On-Course Clinic and Range Instruction.

Women in Government Relations, Inc. (WGR) is among the most active and respected non-profit, non-partisan government relations associations in the Washington metropolitan area. WGR is on the forefront in professional development programming and providing networking opportunities for government relations professionals. To learn more about WGR, please visit wgr.org.

The Women's Congressional Golf Association (WCGA) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization of almost 200 current and former women Hill staffers and women in the government relations field. Our mission is to create opportunities for women to play more golf, take lessons in accordance with their skill levels, and foster a network and sense of fellowship in the unique professional atmosphere that surrounds Capitol Hill. To learn more about WCGA, please visit wcga.org.

WGR and WCGA will be donating the majority of the proceeds from this event to The First Tee of DC. The First Tee is a World Golf Foundation initiative dedicated to providing young people of all backgrounds an opportunity to develop, through golf and character education, life-enhancing values such as honesty, integrity and sportsmanship. The intent is to offer opportunities for improvement in the quality of life and create a platform where children can increase their potential for success. For more information on First Tee visit thefirstteedc.org.
